SECTION 7. MEMBER IN GOOD STANDING.

A member shall be considered to be in good standing as long as his or her membership is not suspended or revoked according to Article IV, Section 5, and furthermore that he or she is not in arrears for committed dues, assessments, or other financial obligations, or financial modification as explained in Article IV. SECTION 1. ANNUAL CORPORATION MEETING DATE.

An annual meeting of the Corporation shall be held during the month of January each year, on such day as the Board of Trustees may designate, unless the Board of Trustees shall by majority vote designate another month for that particular year only. Notice of the annual meeting shall be given by the Secretary of the Corporation in writing, by email, or on the website, if available.

SECTION 2. SPECIAL CORPORATION MEETINGS.

The President may call special meetings of the Corporation whenever it is deemed necessary. It must be called at the written request of one-third (1/3) of the members of the Corporation, in good standing, or a majority of the Board of Trustees, in good standing. Said request shall state the reason for and the purpose of the meeting. In the event that the President fails to issue a call for the special meeting within three (3) days after being requested to do so, any other Officer may issue such call. Notice of such special meeting shall be given by the Secretary of the Corporation, by mail or on the website, to all members of the Corporation, in good standing, not less than fourteen (14) days nor more than thirty (30) days prior to such meeting.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL MEETING CONTEXT.

No business shall be transacted at a special meeting, except for the purposes stated in the call for such meeting, without the consent of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present at that meeting, in person and by proxy, and voting (a quorum being present).

SECTION 4. CORPORATE QUORUM.

A quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of five (5) members in good standing or one-tenth (1/10) of the members of the Corporation, in good standing, whichever is lesser, whether present or by written proxy. A lesser number may adjourn the meeting to some future time, not less than seven (7), nor more than thirty (30) days, from the date thereof. The Board shall thereupon give at least three (3) days notice, by mail, email, or on the website, of such adjourned meeting, to all members in good standing.

SECTION 8. PROXY VOTING.

The Corporation shall allow presence at any corporate meeting by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing, shall designate a member in good standing to whom the proxy is given, shall include the date, and shall be signed by the member giving the proxy. The Board may determine a format and other requirements for a proxy vote solely to facilitate the recording of voting yet must not impose restrictions to a proxy vote that impede the actual vote or prevent a member from otherwise voting. Cancellation of a proxy vote may be executed by written notice dated after the initial proxy vote, or by a vote in person. A vote in person shall be sufficient to serve as notice of the cancellation of proxy. The Corporation may vote to allow proxy voting by electronic means. If the Corporation allows electronic proxy voting, it must formulate rules governing fairness, voting, format, validation, and other related considerations. Except as set forth above, proxy voting shall not be allowed, and specifically shall not be allowed at any meeting of the Board of Trustees or any committee meeting.

SECTION 9. ELECTRONIC VOTING.

The Corporation may vote to allow presence at any corporate meeting by electronic means, including conference call, teleconferencing, electronic mail, Internet Web-casting, and other technologies the Corporation may choose to accept. If the Corporation allows electronic presence, the Corporation or the Board of Trustees must formulate rules governing communication, participation, fairness, order, and other related considerations. Such rules must include that all persons participating in the meeting can freely communicate with each other during the meeting. The Corporation shall consider electronic presence under all such adopted rules equal to attendance in person.

SECTION 10. NOTIFICATION.

The times of notification as listed in the above Sections shall be determined by the date of mailing of the notice. All physical notification must use United States First Class mail to the last known place of residence, or email to the last known email, or by the website. Electronic notification is considered as mailed on the date sent. Any member of the Board of Trustees may waive notice of any meeting.

SECTION 11. CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS.

All elections of the Officers and shall be by secret ballot, except where no opposition exists. The candidate receiving the majority of votes for a specific position cast shall be declared elected. In the event no candidate receives a majority vote for said position, an immediate runoff of the two (2) candidates who received the most votes shall be held. Should there be more than two (2) candidates with the top two (2) vote counts, the runoff shall include all such candidates. The runoff candidate receiving a plurality of votes for the position cast shall then be declared elected. In the event no candidate receives a plurality of the votes cast in the runoff, the Board of Trustees shall choose from the runoff candidates at its next Board meeting. The presiding officer of the corporate meeting shall designate tellers, and they shall tabulate the ballots cast.

ARTICLE VII
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

SECTION 1. BOARD MEMBERSHIP.

The management and administration of the Corporation shall be vested in a Board of Trustees initially consisting of the Officers specified in Article VIII. Unless prohibited or otherwise qualified in the Articles of Incorporation, the Trustees, by unanimous vote, may elect to alter the number of Trustees, which may not necessarily be Officers. Each Trustee shall have one vote, except that spouses shall have one-half (½) vote. The term spouse includes both heterosexual and homosexual individuals in a committed relationship.

SECTION 2. FIDUCIARY STANDARDS.

The Board of Trustees shall be charged with and assume control of all the property of the Corporation; shall designate the bank or banks wherein the funds of the Corporation shall be deposited; shall be responsible for all expenditures and disposal of corporate funds and property. It shall not invest any of the funds of the Corporation in instruments that are not legal.

SECTION 3. BOARD MEETING CONDUCT.

Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard for parliamentary procedure in the Board of Trustees, in the absence of any other By-Law, rule or law governing the procedure in a particular situation. The Board of Trustees shall make such rules and regulations, consistent with these By-Laws, for the proper conduct of their meetings and the furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation. On the occasion that voting be equally divided, the President or Treasurer, in the order of presence, shall have the discretionary power to swing the vote.

SECTION 4. MEETING FREQUENCY AND QUORUM.

The Board of Trustees shall meet with such frequency and at such times and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board of Trustees. If the Board of Trustees has so fixed the frequency, time and place of regular meetings, no notice thereof shall be necessary. Otherwise, three (3) days notice to each Trustee is required. A quorum shall be one-half (1/2) of the voting membership of the Board of Trustees, except as otherwise required by the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code, the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws. Each matter voted upon by the Board of Trustees shall be by a majority vote of the voting members present and voting, except in those specific matters where these By-Laws state otherwise. No notice of any meeting need be given any Trustee who attends such meeting, unless any such Trustee at the beginning of such meeting states any objection or objections to the place or time of the meeting, to the manner in which it has been called or convened or to the transaction of business thereby. Further, notice shall not be required to be given any Trustee who at any time before or after the meeting waives notice of the same in writing. Any action required or permitted by these By-Laws or otherwise to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Trustees may be taken without a meeting, if written consent setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by a majority of the Trustees, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board, as the case may be.

SECTION 5. SPECIAL BOARD MEETINGS.

Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by the President as he/she deems necessary or upon the written request of one-half (1/2) of the members of the Board of Trustees. Said request shall state the reason for and the purpose of the meeting. In the event that the President fails to issue a call for a special meeting within three (3) days after being requested to do so, any other Officer may issue such call. No other business may be transacted at such a meeting.

SECTION 6. REQUIREMENTS AND REMOVAL.

Only a member in good standing of the Corporation shall be considered for election, non-elected membership, or as a successor to a member of the Board of Trustees. Furthermore, any member of the Board of Trustees may be removed, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Trustees present and voting (a quorum being present) or a majority vote at a corporate meeting called for that purpose, for failure to maintain membership in good standing within the Corporation, as well as for incompetence in office, failure to adequately attend regularly scheduled board meetings, failure to abide by these By-Laws and other rules, or otherwise due to actions having been grossly prejudicial to the Corporation. The removal shall occur immediately upon the recording of the vote. The specific reason(s) must be provided in the record of the proceedings, and the Corporation shall be informed that the person is no longer a member of the Board of Trustees. Each member of the Board of Trustees shall be subjected to no more than one (1) removal attempt within each term of office. Should all members of the Board of Trustees be removed or otherwise vacant, and such occurs outside a Corporation meeting where new Board of Trustee members are subsequently elected for the unexpired terms, a Special Corporation Meeting shall be called to elect new Officers to fill the unexpired terms. Such a meeting may be called by any member in good standing, provided that the member serves proper notice as required by Article VI, Sections 2 and 10, herein. In the event multiple members call for separate meetings, the earliest such meeting date shall be operative.

SECTION 7. CONFLICT OF INTEREST.

The Board of Trustees shall adopt and periodically review a Conflict of Interest Policy to protect the Corporation's interest when it is contemplating any transaction or arrangement which may benefit any Trustee, Officer, employee, affiliate, or a member of a committee with Board-delegated powers. A Trustee, Officer, employee, affiliate, or a member of a committee with Board-delegated powers shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred expressly for the Corporation that has been approved by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees.

SECTION 8. NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY.

The Officers, Trustees, committee members, employees, and persons served by the Corporation shall be selected entirely on a nondiscriminatory basis with respect to age, sex, race, religion, national origin, and sexual orientation. It is the policy of the Corporation not to discriminate on the basis of race, creed, ancestry, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical disability, veteran's status, political service or affiliation, color, religion, or national origin.

SECTION 9. OPEN BOARD MEETINGS.

In the interests of open governance, meetings of the Board of Trustees are open to the public. The Board of Trustees, at its discretion, may vote to meet in Executive Session, limiting attendance to the Board of Trustees and invited guests. The Board of Trustees shall meet in Executive Session for matters pertaining to salary, removal, financial modification, and other sensitive Corporation matters.

SECTION 10. ELECTRONIC BOARD MEETINGS.

The Board of Trustees may vote to allow presence at any Board meeting by electronic presence, including conference call, electronic mail, teleconferencing, Internet Web-casting, or other technologies that the Board of Trustees so chooses. If the Board allows electronic presence, it shall formulate rules governing communication, participation, fairness, order, voting, and other procedural considerations. Such rules must include that all persons participating in the meeting can freely communicate with each other during the meeting. The Board of Trustees shall consider electronic presence under all such adopted rules equal to attendance in person.

SECTION 11. INFORMAL ACTION BY ELECTRONIC MAIL.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Trustees at a meeting may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be agreed by the consensus of a quorum. For purposes of this section an electronic mail transmission from an e-mail address on record constitutes a valid writing. The intent of this provision is to allow the Board of Trustees to use e-mail to approve actions, as long as a quorum of Board members gives consent, and all Board members are notified by e-mail as to both the question and the voting result.

ARTICLE VIII

The Treasurer shall notify all members of the Corporation of their obligations and pledges; receive all monies which shall be payable to the Corporation, and cause the same to be deposited or invested in the Corporation's name, as directed by the Board of Trustees. With Board approval, the Treasurer may select a Certified Public Accountant to conduct periodically a compilation, review, or audit, as may be required by law, of the financial books and records of the Corporation and prepare to the Board as any Board member may request. An Officer shall be elected for a term of one (1) year. Officers may be elected to any number of successive terms.

SECTION 8. VACANCY OF OFFICER.

In the event of the death, resignation, disability, or removal of any Officer other than the President, a successor shall be elected by the Board of Trustees to immediately fill the office for the unexpired term. Officers elected in this manner shall not apply said term as part of the non-succession clause if they serve in this capacity for less than twelve (12) calendar months. In the event that an Officer, in the middle of the term, runs for another elective position, the Officer position shall be open for election by the Corporation for the remainder of the term. Should the Corporation not fill the office, the Board of Trustees may fill the office for the unexpired term.

SECTION 9. NUMBER OF OFFICERS.

The Board of Trustees may alter the number of Officers by a unanimous vote. A single individual may occupy multiple offices and be allowed multiple votes, one (1) per office.

ARTICLE IX
DOCUMENT RETENTION POLICY

SECTION 1. RETENTION PURPOSE.

The purpose of this document retention policy is establishing standards for document integrity, retention, and destruction and to promote the proper treatment of corporate records.

SECTION 2. RETENTION POLICY.

The purpose of this document retention policy is establishing standards for document integrity, retention, and destruction and to promote the proper treatment of corporate records.

- a. General Guidelines. Records may not be kept if they are no longer needed for the operation of the business or required by law. Unnecessary hard-copy records should be eliminated from the files, as well as electronic records that are not categorized clearly. The cost of maintaining records is an expense which can grow unreasonably if good housekeeping is not performed. A mass of records also makes it more difficult to find pertinent records. From time to time, the Corporation may establish retention or destruction policies or schedules for specific categories of records in order to ensure legal compliance, and also to accomplish other objectives, such as preserving intellectual property and cost management. Several categories of documents that warrant special consideration are identified herein. While minimum retention periods are established, the retention of the documents identified below and of documents not included in the identified categories should be determined primarily by the application of the general guidelines affecting document retention, as well as the exception for litigation relevant documents and any other pertinent factors.
- b. Exception for Litigation Relevant Documents. The Corporation expects all Officers, Trustees, and employees to comply fully with any published records retention or destruction policies and schedules, provided that all Officers, Trustees, and employees should note the following general exception to any stated destruction schedule: If one believes, or the Corporation informs that person, that corporate records are relevant to litigation, or potential litigation (i.e., a dispute that could result in litigation), then that person must preserve those records until it is determined that the records are no longer needed. That exception supersedes any previously or subsequently established destruction schedule for those records.
- c. Minimum Retention Periods For Specific Categories. The following is an enumeration of specific categories of documents:
- i. Corporate Documents. Corporate records include the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and IRS Form 1023 and Application for Exemption. Corporate records should be retained permanently. IRS regulations require that the Form 1023 be available for public inspection upon request.
 - ii. Tax Records. Tax records include, but may not be limited to, documents concerning payroll, expenses, proof of contributions made by donors, accounting procedures, and other documents concerning the Corporation's revenues. Tax records should be retained for at least seven (7) years from the date of filing the applicable return.
 - iii. Employment Records/Personnel Records. State and federal statutes require the corporation to keep certain recruitment, employment and personnel information. The Corporation should also keep personnel files that reflect performance reviews and any complaints brought against the corporation or individual employees under applicable state and federal statutes. The Corporation should also keep in the employee's personnel file all final memoranda and correspondence reflecting performance reviews and actions taken by or against personnel. Employment applications should be retained for three (3) years. Retirement and pension records should be kept permanently. Other employment and personnel records should be retained for seven (7) years.
 - iv. Board and Board Committee Materials. Meeting minutes should be retained in perpetuity in the corporation's minute book. A clean copy of all other Board and Board Committee materials should be kept for no less than three (3) years by the Corporation.
 - v. Press Releases/Public Filings. The Corporation should retain permanent copies of all press releases and publicly filed documents under the theory that the Corporation should have its own copy to test the accuracy of any document a member of the public can theoretically produce against the Corporation.

vi. Legal Files. Legal counsel should be consulted to determine the retention period of particular documents, but legal documents should generally be maintained for a period of ten (10) years.

vii. Marketing and Sales Documents. The Corporation should keep final copies of marketing and sales documents for the same period it keeps other corporate files, generally three (3) years. An exception to the three (3) year policy may be sales invoices, contracts, leases, licenses, and other legal documentation. These documents should be kept for at least three (3) years beyond the life of the agreement.

viii. Development/Intellectual Property and Trade Secrets. Development documents are often subject to intellectual property protection in their final form (e.g., patents and copyrights). The documents detailing the development process are often also of value to the Corporation and are protected as a trade secret where the Corporation: derives independent economic value from the secrecy of the information; and has taken affirmative steps to keep the information confidential. The Corporation should keep all documents designated as containing trade secret information for at least the life of the trade secret. Final, execution copies of all contracts entered into by the Corporation should be retained. The Corporation should retain copies of the final contracts for at least three (3) years beyond the life of the agreement, and longer in the case of publicly filed contracts. Unless correspondence falls under another category listed elsewhere in this policy, correspondence should generally be saved for two (2) years.

ix. Banking and Accounting. Accounts payable ledgers and schedules should be kept for seven (7) years. Bank reconciliations, bank statements, deposit slips and checks (unless for important payments and purchases) should be kept for three (3) years. Any inventories of products, materials, and supplies and any invoices should be kept for seven (7) years.

x. Insurance. Expired insurance policies, insurance records, accident reports, claims, etc. should be kept permanently.

xi. Audit Records. External audit reports should be kept permanently. Internal audit reports should be kept for three (3) years.

d. Electronic Mail and Documents. E-mail and electronic documentation that needs to be saved should either be:

- i. Printed in hard copy and kept in the appropriate file; or
- ii. Downloaded to a computer file or folder and kept electronically or on disk as a separate file. The retention period depends upon the subject matter of the e-mail, as covered elsewhere in this policy.

ARTICLE X

TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

SECTION 1. AVAILABILITY PURPOSE.

By making full and accurate information about its mission, activities, finances, and governance publicly available, the Corporation practices and encourages transparency and accountability to the public. This policy will:

- a. Indicate which documents and materials produced by the Corporation are presumptively open to staff and/or the public.
- b. Indicate which documents and materials produced by the Corporation are presumptively closed to staff and/or the public.
- c. Specify the procedures whereby the open/closed status of documents and materials can be altered.

SECTION 2. FINANCIAL AND IRS DOCUMENTS (FORM 1023 AND FORM 990).

The Corporation shall provide its Internal Revenue forms 990, 990-N, and 1023, By-Laws, Conflict of Interest Policy, and financial statements to the public for inspection free of charge. Should the Corporation have a WEBSITE, such documents should be available there.

SECTION 3. MEANS AND CONDITIONS OF DISCLOSURE.

The Corporation shall make “Widely Available” the aforementioned documents on its internet website, should one exist, to be viewed and inspected by the public.

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

- C. To the extent that an Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections A and B of this By-law provision or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.
- D. Any indemnification under subsections A and B of this By-law provision (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the Officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections A and B. Such determination shall be made:
 - (1) By the Board of Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Officers who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding; or
 - (2) If such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested Officers so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.
 - (3) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Officer, employee or agent to repay such if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this By-law provision.
- E. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this By-law provision shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights, in respect to indemnification or otherwise, to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any other By-law, resolution or agreement, either specifically or in general terms approved by the Board of Trustees, taken at a meeting, the notice of which specified that such By-law, resolutions or agreement would be placed before the Board, both as to action by an Officer, employee or agent in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office or position, except that no such other rights, in respect to indemnification or otherwise, may be provided or granted to an Officer, employee or agent pursuant to this subsection by the Corporation with respect to the liabilities described in divisions (b)(3)(A)(i) through (b)(3)(A)(iv) of Georgia Business Corporation Code Section 14-2-171.
- F. The Corporation may attempt to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was an Officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation or who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as an Officer, employee or agent of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under this By-law provision.
- G. For purposes of this By-law provision, references to "the Corporation" shall include, in addition to the surviving or new Corporation, any merging or consolidating Corporation (including any merging or consolidating Corporation of a merging or consolidating Corporation) absorbed in a merger or consolidation, so that any person who is or was an Officer, employee or agent of such merging or consolidating Corporation or who is or was serving at the request of such merging or consolidating Corporation as an Officer, employee or agent or another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this By-law provision with respect to the resulting or surviving Corporation as he would if he had served the resulting or surviving Corporation in the same capacity, provided that no indemnification under subsections A and B of this By-law provision permitted by this subsection shall be mandatory under this subsection or any By-law of the surviving or new Corporation without the approval of such indemnification by the Board of Trustees of the surviving or new Corporation in the manner provided in paragraph (1) of subsection D of this By-law provision.

H.
